

NEUTRAL ZONE / LINES
True or False

1. When the ball is marked ready for play, the neutral zone is either 10 yards or the length of a football. _____
2. The neutral zone may be expanded into the end zone. _____
3. Hash marks divide the field longitudinally into thirds. _____
4. The field is an area within the boundary lines and the goal lines. _____
5. A defensive player is on his line of scrimmage when he is within two yards of his LOS at the snap. _____
6. The end line is the outer limit of each end zone. _____
7. The restraining line is a line placed around the outside of the field. _____
8. The line to gain is established when a new series is awarded. _____
9. The neutral zone is automatically expanded two yards behind the defensive line of scrimmage on scrimmage kicks. _____
10. The sideline is a lateral line that extends from goal line to goal line. _____
11. If the line to gain extends into the end zone, the goal line is the line to gain. _____
12. A runner cannot fumble after a ball in his possession breaks the plane of the opponent's goal line. _____
13. The neutral zone is established when the ball is marked ready for play. _____
14. On a free kick, if any R or K player enters the neutral zone prior to the kick, the ball remains dead. _____
15. When a free kick or scrimmage kick breaks the plane of R's goal line, the ball is always dead. _____